

What is the TEF?

The TEF - Test d'Évaluation du Français is designed to assess the level of French language of people who are not native French speakers. It is useful if you need to evaluate your French skills for French universities or for work.

- It assesses comprehension and expression skills in French.
- It measures the quantitative and qualitative level of a candidate's linguistic and communication skills.
- It offers a detailed and personalized analysis of results.

The overall objective of the TEF is to measure the level of the candidates' knowledge, linguistic and communications skills in French. The TEF includes:

3 Compulsory Sections (2 hours 10 minutes)	2 Optional Sections
Written Comprehension (1 hour) Listening Comprehension (about 40 min) Vocabulary and Structures (30 min)	Written Expression (1hour) Oral Expression (15 min per candidate)

For students with special circumstances, we also offer the e.tef.

Notes:

1. No diploma is required to take the TEF exam.
2. You can take the TEF exam as many times as you like.
3. A results certificate, sent to you by the Center, is valid for two years.

As of February 2016, the TEF scores are calculated with the following new point system:

Ancien barème TEF		Nouveau barème TEF
Bonne réponse	3 points	Bonne réponse	1 point
Pas de réponse	0 point	Pas de réponse	0 point
Mauvaise réponse	-1 point	Mauvaise réponse	0 point

How much does it cost?

Exam fee is not refundable after the registration deadline.

The compulsory portion costs $180 for French Cultural Center members, $200 for non-members.

Two optional sections cost $80 each for members, $100 each for non-members.
